

A Story Worth Telling

Post-Journal

June 23, 2018

Southwestern Central School football coach Jehuu Caulcrick was the guest of honor at the Norden Club's Midsommar Fest at the Adelsman's Klub in Gerry on Wednesday evening. The former Clymer Central School and Michigan State University standout running back was interviewed by Post-Journal sports editor Scott Kindberg about the former's miraculous life journey, which took him from war-torn Liberia to the National Football League. In the photo above, Kindberg reads off a list of Caulcrick's football accomplishments. Submitted photo

Kindberg and Caulcrick share a light moment with Chautauqua Sports Hall of Fame president Randy Anderson. Caulcrick was inducted into the CSHOF in 2015. Submitted photo
